IT'S A HIT!

Bottom of the 10th, two outs, bases loaded, and the league's best hitter is at the plate. Will he take your screwball downtown? Or will you blow him away with your awesome fastball? Find out when you play Extra Innings, the amazing new baseball game for Super NES.

Select your starting lineup based on who's hot and who's not. With Extra Innings, you call the shots and control the action: the spin on the curveball, your batter's slugging power, even your player's dive for a shot up the middle.

When you play Extra Innings, you can put on a hit and run, take a long lead off first, or nail a base runner at the plate on a sacrifice fly. Play like the pros as you fight for a 12-team league pennant. And remember, statistics are updated and available on every player. You even select the stadium — air dome, midsize, or high-walled. Every choice changes the game.

There's never been a baseball game like Extra Innings. Eight different playing options, including two-player mode and all-star team competition, make this the hit of the season. Extra Innings. It's a home run!

Bases loaded, full-count

Pop fly to left field

A Role-Playing Megaverse®

- Robotech™
- Mechanoids®
- Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles®
- Heroes Unlimited™
- Ninjas & Superspies™
- Beyond the Supernatural™
- Palladium® RPG (fantasy)
- RECON® (military)
- Rifts® (cosmic sf adventure)
- And other role-playing games

Worlds of Adventure ...

Palladium Books® produces some of the most popular role-playing games ever. From super powered heroes and Ninja Turtles to slayers of the supernatural and masters of super- science and magic.

Player characters can be robots, cyborgs, mutants, aliens, wizards, warriors, cyber-knights, superninja, superspies, psychic investigators (possessing psionic powers), dragons (yes dragons!), elves, wolfen, and dozens of other superhuman heroes!

But that's not all ...

Palladium's role-playing games all use one basic set of rules. This means once you learn one of our games you can play any of them!

Best of all, you can easily bring characters from one game world into any of our other games! In fact, Rifts combines all of our games into one gigantic, multi-dimensional extravaganza.

As if this were not enough, all of Palladium's games are sturdy, 8 1/2 by 11 paperback books; easy to carry, easy to use, and easy to store on a shelf.

Illustrators include Richard Corben, James Steranko, Kevin Eastman, Peter Laird, Steve Bissette, Denis Cowan, Steve Hickman, Mike Gustovich, Kevin Long, and Keith Parkinson.

We suggest role-playing games for readers 12 and older.

Where can you find these Palladium® RPGs?

Most comic book stores and hobby shops carry at least some of our role-playing game books and can order the ones they don't currently have in stock. Or directly from Palladium Books®.

To read about Palladium's entire game line and ROBOTECH videocassettes, send 50 cents for our 24 page catalog to:

BULLPEN BULLETINS

STAN'S SOAPBOX

Hi, Heroes!

There I was, thirty-three thousand feet above the Earth, jetting back to Los Angeles after a recent trip to the Big Apple where I'd been visiting Marvel's peerless prez, Merry Terry Stewart, and his comic book commandos.

Thumbing through a newspaper as the plane zoomed along, I couldn't help but notice how depressing many of the items were. There was column after column of crime, violence, racism and despair. The more I read, the more my thoughts kept drifting back to the Marvel bullpen. Then, something occurred to me which I'd like to share with you.

In many ways the gang at Marvel is not unlike the United Nations. We have artists, writers, editors and production people, as well as a bright staff of managers who handle our countless business and legal matters. And, like the U.N., all of these dedicated, hard-working Marvelites, men and women alike, represent just about every color, race and creed.

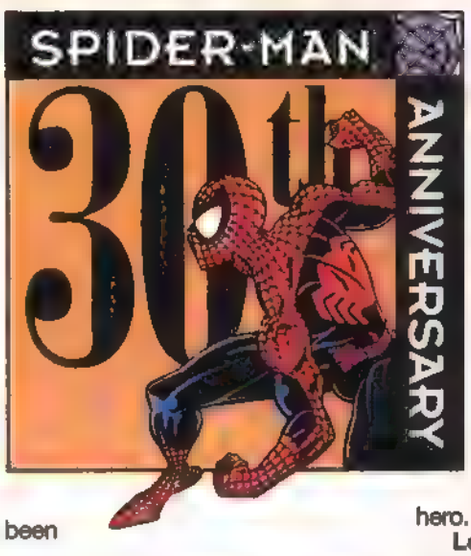
Now here's the point, which I can't seem to get out of my mind. If Marvel's little legion of diverse individuals can work together in harmony and friendship the way they do, respecting each other's rights, cooperating and helping one another as they work towards a common goal, then why can't the nations of the world do the same thing? Why can't the inhabitants of our cities and towns behave towards each other in the same way? Why can't people everywhere adopt a philosophy similar to that of our own Silver Surfer, a philosophy that says: We're all members of one great human family, sharing an all-too-brief sojourn on an enchanted planet; therefore, we should celebrate the gift of life by making every golden minute as joyful for each other as we possibly can.

It's a simple enough credo, and perhaps if more of us would adhere to it, the day will come when reading the news won't be such a grim and somber experience. And wouldn't it be nice to think that a comic book company helped to show the way?

Excelsior!

Stan

Stan Lee



Where were you in June '62?

No, we're not advertising an old George Lucas movie — we're celebrating the 30th anniversary of the Amazing Spider-Man! We thought it would be a lark, a hoot, a kick, if you will, to approach the great Spider-Man writers and artists from over the years and ask them what they were doing back when Spidey was first hatched out of the fertile brains of Stan Lee and Steve Ditko. Here's what they had to say.

John Romita, penciler: I was over at DC doing romance books. I was unaware of Spider-Man and the Fantastic Four. I had no idea that a phenomenon was occurring.

Ross Andru, penciler: I can't remember that far back. It's all a blur. It's like looking out the window of a fast train. I do know that whatever I was doing then, I must have been happy.

Erik Larsen, writer-artist: I was waiting to be born.

John Romita, Jr., penciler: I was five years old. I remember beginning to doodle because I saw my father drawing. I remember playing a lot of stickball. I heard my first Beatles song, and I lost my dog Poochie.

Sal Buscema, artist: I was in New York, living in Queens, with my wife of about a little over a year. I was working for an advertising art studio by the name of Alexander Chaite Studios Inc.

Mark Bagley, penciler: I was five years old. I was an army brat. I picked up on comics when I was eight or nine years old. Gil Kane's SPIDER-MAN stuff always appealed to me — it was a major influence on me.

Ron Frenz, penciler: I was doing whatever two-year olds do. Probably already drawing.

Peter David, writer: I was in kindergarten. My parents wouldn't let me buy Marvel Comics because they said the characters were too ugly. I didn't read my first Marvels until several years later, when I was able to a) earn my own money, and b) hide my comic books.

Keith Pollard, penciler: I was twelve years old. I was a comic book fan. I was probably in middle school. I was heavily into Superman and Batman. One of my best friends introduced me to Spider-Man. I think the first one I saw was the fourth issue, with Doc Ock.

David Michelinie, writer: I was 14 years old. That was the summer I gave up comic books. I was going to be a freshman in high school, and I felt that was too old to reading comics. I gave away my collection of 500 comics, which today would probably pay the national debt.

Alex Saviuk, penciler: I was nine years old. I was an avid comic book reader at that time. I didn't hear about Spider-Man until the end of that summer. I went to the store to look for the latest Superman and Batman comics, but there were no new DCs that week. I had 25 or 30 extra cents, and a friend convinced me to buy FANTASTIC FOUR #18 and SPIDER-MAN #5.

J.M. DeMatteis, writer: I was eight and a half years old, living in an apartment in Brooklyn, either reading comics or running around in the street with my friends. I was a die-hard DC fan, so I was probably reading Justice League or Green Lantern at the time. I didn't discover Marvel until later. I was a slow learner!

Marv Wolfman, writer: I was in the High School of Art and Design in Manhattan. I was trying to become a cartoonist. I was a regular reader of AMAZING ADULT FANTASY. I read all the issues. When #15 came out, it was a shock. I was very disappointed because I liked the "O' Henry/Twilight Zone" type of stories that Stan and Steve were doing. I didn't want to see yet another super hero. But I read it, and I really liked it.

Len Wein, writer: I was a big comics fan. I was in junior high. I picked up any issue of AMAZING ADULT FANTASY. I picked up the first Spider-Man. I had a complete set of Silver Age Marvels. I almost did not buy FF #1. I used to stand in the store and stare at that logo — I thought it was a funny animal comic!

Jim Mooney, inker: I had a studio in Hollywood, California. I was working at DC, doing Supergirl, and any other comics they asked me to do. About a year later, somebody showed me Ditko's SPIDER-MAN, and I was jealous!

Danny Fingeroth, editor: I was a camper at Camp Winadu. I had the biggest comic book collection there!

Tom DeFalco, writer/editor: I was twelve years old, and already a died-in-the-wool Marvel fan. I bought AMAZING FANTASY #15 when it first came out. I had been a Marvel fan since FF #3. At that time, my greatest considerations were lunch, comics, and summer vacations.

Mike Esposito, inker: I remember I was definitely aware of Spider-Man when the character came out. Back in '62, my daughter was reading an issue of SPIDER-MAN, and I asked her what it was. I had never heard of it. I glanced at it, and I thought it was so different from anything we were doing over at DC. My daughter said she liked Spider-Man because he had problems with his girlfriend and school — she could identify with it. And I thought, "My God — (Stan) Lee's got a winner!"

Not to end this reminiscence session on a crassly commercial note, but you may want to know that this month marks the debut of a special 30th anniversary Spidey t-shirt, featuring great artwork from the past 3 decades. Also available this month is a new SPIDER-MAN trading card set, featuring some of Spidey's greatest moments over the past three decades. We don't know about you, but our Spider-Collector's Sense is tingling like five-alarm chili!

Attention Correspondent-Dudes: All letters considered for publication must include your name and address, though we will withhold that info upon request!

Welcome, excellent readers, to yet another non-heinous — BREAKkdjflakiel 82304ulj3uskdaOw9nf894302u09387 438#%*@543re83$83h

Ahh. . .that's better.

Attention, readers of this pathetic publication: this is the master of your future, DeNomolos.

I have withstood the indignities heaped upon me in this so-called "comic book" for far too long. My sheer genius has made it possible for me to take remote control of the Marvel Comics typesetting computer without the fools even realizing I have done so! And all this done from a floating rock in Hell!

Sometimes I even startle myself.

And so. . .on to your moronic, pitiable correspondence.

Dear Keanu Reeves,

I know a lot about you. I think you are very cute to me. What I like most about you is that you are tall. But how tall are you?

I have another question. In Beirut, Lebanon, the people that live there how do they talk do you know because I'm very curious.

And can you draw? Show me a drawing of a horse. And, also, what color is your hair? Because I'm puzzled. Is your hair black or brown?

Oh Salaam my dream boy. And, hey, I'm just saying that because I like you a lot.

Rebecca McGarity
Hot Springs, AK

I do not know who this Keanu person is. In fact, I do not understand a single thing you said.

How's It Going, Dudes and Babes?

I have just read a totally non-non-non-heinous issue of BILL & TED'S EXCELLENT COMIC BOOK. Whoa, heavy! Plus I have joined a most non-bogus Bill & Ted fan club. Excellent!

Now, I got a couple of questions.

1) In the movie Bill & Ted's Bogus Journey, DeNomolos gets arrested. In the Marvel most excellent movie adaptation, he gets killed. I don't get it. Did I miss something?

2) Yo, Missy, babe. Will you go out with me? I don't care if you're married and I know you don't, either. Oh, what the heck — wanna get married?

3) I have been taking guitar lessons for a long time. So like Bill, Ted, can I join Wyld Stallyns?

4) I know Death is a very good game player. NOT! Anyway, does he ever win?

Catch you later, dudes!

Leo "Leonard" Lis
755 Narrow Road N., Apt. 6I4
Staten Island NY 10304

The answers to your ridiculous questions:

1) Yes, you did miss something — the movie people "softening up" my terrible fate for immature, impressionable cretins such as yourself! Hear this now: I DIED! I AM IN HELL! To deny this is to deny my pain — and I will not stand for it!

2) And the other motion-picture myth — that I married this "Missy" person — is even more grating! I received no affections from any young, blonde "babes!" I am alone. ALONE AND IN HELL!

3) Yes, my idiotic friend, you may join Wyld Stallyns — in eternal damnation! Ha ha ha!

4) Speaking as the genius who defeated Death at Life, Sorry, Toss Across, Electronic Battleship, Stratego, Don't Break the Ice, Chutes and Ladders, Rock 'Em Sock 'Em Robots, and Candyland, I would have to say. . .no.

Excuse Me,

On behalf of myself and the rest of the Love Sick Flesh Puppies, I would have to say, Colonel Oats, that you, sir, are a true Nigel.

You're an unswive shifty pickle who probably wears Dockers on his day off. You pansy, you don't even know the true taste of Tangness. Spending an afternoon with you would be like spending an evening alone with a guy named Earl. You're an unfriend. If you were food, you'd be the bone in my McRib. If you were a soda, you'd be Upper 10. Sodium, salt-free.

For your information, I eat meat, shave twice a day, and am so partial to green that I'd be pleased to wear it every minute of every hour. So stick that in your brown bag and save it, Chump.

By the way, Bill, Ted, we're sorry about this. Believe us, we . .we still love you. And hey, if you ever need an opening act, we're your band. Shoe betcha.

The Love Sick Flesh Puppies

Ashland OR 97520

You are fools. . .but you have much hatred within you. Perhaps you will have a place in my New World Order.

Dear Bill & Ted,

I just got done reading issue #4, and it was most excellent. I want to know if you're ever going to make a third movie, and then make it a comic book because I LOVE your books.

Doug Gillum
(Address Withheld by Request)

Yes, there will be third movie. . .It will be called* Bill & Ted Die Horribly at the Hands of Their Superior, DeNomolos the Great. *Watch for it, you brainwashed buffoons.

Greetings and Salutations!

Sincere congrats on a totally unrivalled comic! Issue #6 was by far the most hysterical comic ever! I was in sitting in church (yes!) reading Ted talk about snorting milk out of his nose! Like, I totally found out what he meant when the rest of the church dudes gave me 'the look.'

Well, they went and done it, they've taken B & T cartoons off of TV! Bogus, huh? I suppose Ghostbusters isn't such a bad replacement, but I still have to cry myself to sleep on Saturday nights.

Could someone let Yvette from Daventry, U.K. know that utterances like "skill" and "ace" are out? Way, way out!

If this letter is good enough for print (unlike Greg Joyner's from Kentucky — ha!), please could you tell a certain three of my male B & T fan friends (who kill) to STOP CALLING ME MISSY!!

Is there any way I can get to be a B & T fan club president here in England?

Party on, dudes!

Miss (no 'y') Becky Hawkins
57 Hazelwood House
4 Brunswick Road
Sutton, Surrey
England SM1 4DQ

You will be president of England's DeNomolos Booster Club, which will exist after I wipe out those imbeciles, Bill & Ted. You and your pale, easily-embarrassed countrymen will be among the first to be assimilated.

NEXT MONTH:

Those mindless clods, Bill and Ted, take an unexpected journey to Hyperworld — a place where muscular people in tights hit each other.

Actually, that does not sound half bad. . .

Will Bill and Ted be able to escape horrific injury and get home to their equally moronic spouses and children? I, for one, certainly hope not.
